Chris Lian Appointed Client Services Representative For the State of New York

Black Creek announces Chris Lian's appointment as Client Services Representative for the State of New York, effective January 14, 2013. Chris will act as a communications channel between Black Creek and its New York customer base, the Commission of Corrections and the Sheriff's Association and to serve as a facilitator and troubleshooter for all things Black Creek in New York State.

Chris has over thirty years of New York corrections experience in a broad variety of roles from line staff to facility administrator and is well-versed in New York corrections law and facility operations.

Black Creek is excited to have someone of Chris's caliber assuming this important role and Chris is looking forward to working with our New York client base. Please join us in congratulating him on his new appointment.
